

EL PARAGUAS ATLÁNTICO 2014

WHITE OAK AGED
BODEGAS EL PARAGUAS
D.O. RIBEIRO (SPAIN)

BASIC INFORMATION:

Varietal composition: 85% Treixadura, 9% Godello and 6% Albariño.

Oak aging: Godello spent three months aging in 500 liters Burgundian French oak barrels.

Soils: Situated at an altitude of 750 feet above sea level, the vineyards which Bodegas El Paraguas works with consist of sandy soils.

Vineyard: Our own vineyard is located in the municipality of Ribadavia (northwest of Spain), at the mouth of the Avia river with Miño and occupies an area of 2.6 acres.

Climatology: Atlantic smooth with some continental influence.

HISTORY:

Bodegas El Paraguas was born thanks to the encounter of two figures of wine scene, the consultant winemaker Felicísimo Pereira and the winemaker Marcial Pita. Since its foundation in 2011, Bodegas El Paraguas has been a resounding success, exceeding expectations surrounding its birth and its creators.

PRODUCTION:

A wine produced in the D.O. Ribeiro (northwest of Spain) with the triumvirate of great grapes of Galicia: Treixadura, Albariño and Godello. Each grape variety was developed individually, in stainless steel tanks or in French oak barrels. The new Ambassador of the Galicians white wines has a philosophy which incorporates the latest technology in wine at the service of old age vineyards, in which the intervention of Bodegas El Paraguas is minimal and always to the service of the highest quality of the clusters.

SENSORY AND VISUAL ANALYSIS:

Tasting appearance: It wears a lemon color with thatched and green iridescence.

Tasting nose: Nose is dominated by Treixadura variety, which exhibits its splendor with white fruits like pear and floral like mimosa.

Tasting palate: Structured mouth, comprehensive and markedly Atlantic. Its fresh step is emphasized by the fruitiness in step. Long finish that invites to repeat.

CONSUMPTION:

Service: Ambient temperature between 50 and 54° F. / Enjoyment: In perfect condition until the middle of 2020.
